

JitOps Cloud is a cloud company who operates globally. JitOps has been providing hosting services to small and medium business globally for over 5 years.

Our mission is simply to provide world class hosting services and solutions, along with real value for money and the very best in customer support. We specialize in all aspects of web hosting, delivering everything from cloud web hosting, optimized WordPress and enterprise hosting to cloud and virtual servers.

In addition, we provide a range of website builder packages, website security services, VPNs, backup services, email services which include spam filtering, SSL Certs and lots more.

Our Promise

- We always endeavor to keep our customers happy and deal with communications in a prompt and efficient manner.
- We will acknowledge any communication sent to us by email within 24 hours and written letter within 5 working days.
- We will endeavor to remedy customer issues within 48 hours of receipt of the complaint.
- If you're not entirely happy with any of the support you receive you can escalate your complaint by contacting our management at support@jitops.com and an acknowledgement will be sent within 24 hours.
- Any escalation complaint will be responded to within 7 working days.

JitOps also has a significant interest in promoting a safe and secure Internet and so we work with numerous organizations We also commit to best practice policies of StopBadware.org and SiteLock.com who work to protect people and organizations from becoming victims of viruses, spyware, scareware and other barware.

Abuse Complaints

If you are aware of any abuse of hosting Ireland services or would like to draw to our attention an abuse complaint such as spamming please send any information to abuse@jitops.com.